

If additional data are not needed, is it still necessary to conduct a Child Study Team meeting?

Yes!

A Child Study Team meeting must be held at least once every three years or more frequently if the student's parent or teacher requests.